Horoscope Consultation :

Dear Sir,

Sai Krishna Karteek is a very kind & good in nature. He has the ability to convince any one with his words. At a time he is not religious but there is a possibility that in future due to excess of pressure & anxiety he turns towards religious activities. He likes to spend money on luxurious particulars. He has to struggle a lot for everything though he will get lot of paternal property and liquid cash.

Sai Krishna Karteek is normal in his studies in current period, neither he is on higher side nor towards lower & this remains same in future too.

He will attend his 10th Board exams in year 2025, at this time pressure he will feel some depression, low confidence level due to your (father's) excess pressure & it also depends on his friends circle too. The more pressure he receives from his father's side the more he distract from his studies. After 10th Result, let him to select his subjects of his choice and interest.

He will attend his 12th Board exams in year 2027 with normal performance.

There is less possibility that he inclined towards engineering or medical line. If you send him in such field(s) he will feel suffocation and will not get proper growth in his career.

The most preferable career line which I suggest for him is : BALLB / LLB & thereafter Judiciary. He will definitely enjoy this profession & will get appropriate success. Some Consultancy type of profession will also suits him. He has the ability to express his views very clearly to anyone and he also makes people convince from his words. He also consist a creative mind.

*I suggest you not to put pressure on him regarding his studies; his career. It would be good if you support him, show full confidence in him & with love.

Marks in Result don't define that a person would be successful in his career or not. What matters are Our Karma, Planetary Dashas and Good Astrological Consultation at the time or before choosing career field. God will definitely show him correct path.
